ACKERMAN
HERITAGE HOUSE

AUTHENTIC Architecture

Ackerman Heritage House can be considered one of the most unique settings in the Napa Valley. Our Estate is appointed with true authenticity and French styled antiques that have deep connections to history.

Take a journey back in time to the Victorian Era and immerse yourself in the romance of our beautiful chandeliers, candelabras, china + silver, and overall epicurean aesthetic.

We are delighted to curate luxurious moments filled with opulent wine and world class cuisine exclusively at The Ackerman Heritage House.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE

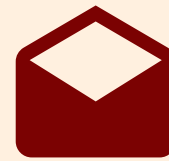

- 1889: This gem of victorian architecture was built by Sarah Hayman.
 - The architect, Luther Turton, was contracted to build the estate in 90 days.
- Between 1910 & 1920: The carriage house was constructed on the property.
- 1997: The house is listed as a contributing structure in the National Register of Historic Places. It is also listed in Napa County Landmark's "Most Threatened" list of structures in Napa.
- 2010: Lauren Ackerman purchases the property and becomes only the 6th owner of the estate.
- Lauren attended Oxford University to perfect the historical accuracy of this restoration project.
- 2015: The Ackerman Heritage House is opened as an event space after a five year historical restoration project.
- 2022: The inauguration of the Ackerman Tea Society allows for the continued sustainability of the vision which Lauren Ackerman foresaw for this historical property.
